Student Calendars, Prepaid Pictures New To K.V.'s Registration.

"The school still looks the same, I guess it wasn't all that bad last year."

"But, I didn't even sign up for these classes." "We HAVE to pay for pictures NOW? I thought we paid when we got them!"

"DOES ANYONE HAVE A COMB I CAN USE?" "OH! There's what's his face. He sure has improved over the summer."

Mr. Crawford and Mr. Rich greeted everyone entering with their schedules and a student handbook. Yearbooks went over very well at registration, students and faculty having purchased 2944 of 164 books.

With many students again took the unknown entrance at registration. This year they used a new system. The students paid for their shooting, which is possible for the students to receive them in the middle of October. This changed the method has created some confusion among bewildered new kids.

Rains Pour; Spirits Soar

"Do you think we'll be able to win THIS game?!" ... "I can't wait until the dance starts." ... "I haven't danced for so long!!" ... "I sure wish the rain would stop, I'm freezing." ... "Doesn't Candy look nice?"

The rain storm that poured on Wheatfield, September 30, could not easily dampen spirits which had been building all week. The days designated for crazy dress found the halls filled with enthusiastic, and sometimes funny-looking kids.

The annual Powder Puff game between the junior and senior girls gave the girls a chance to show their football abilities. The junior girls had a bit more ability and pulled out a victory, 42-0.

Friday night found an equally enthusiastic bunch of guys striving for a more unattainable goal, losing to Winamac, 38-14.

Spirits, still up for the Homecoming Dance, had all ready to Boogie Down. Before the dance began, Dawn Jungels crowned Candy Manns as the 1977 Homecoming Queen. The other senior candidates were: Brenda Dobry, Colleen Richie, Debbie Sanders, and Kathy Wood. Appearing in the Court were, Sophomore — Kim Schultz; Junior — Gayle Struble; and Freshman — Mary Grover.

All in all, the Kougars enjoyed their Homecoming.

"Feelings" Looked In.

"I love your dress!" ...
 "Where did you guys eat?" ...
 "The food at the Court was really delicious." "Isn't the band something else?" ... "Where are you guys going after the dance?" ... "Do you want to come over and play pool?" ... "Oh, please get me a balloon!"

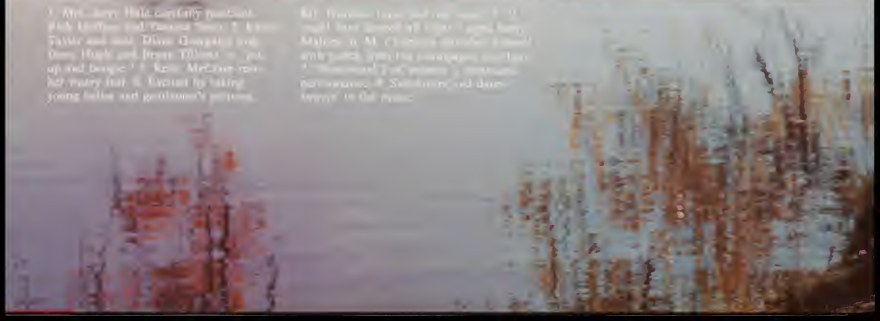

The Fall Ball sponsored by the Sunshine Society, on November 15, began with rock music performed by the group, "Starwood Fox".

A champagne lunch for the Miss Sunshine court, held in the morning, followed the evening of hundreds and scores of couples attending the dance. Photographs taken by Roger Bartaler in a set of fashion scenes, advanced the "Feelings" of the evening. When the clock struck 11:00, the balloons tied to the chandeliers brought the dance to a close.

Death, Dare, Hair Shape '78 Scene

While countless events shaped the lives of students in K.V., many other influences — national and worldly — had an effect on their lives.

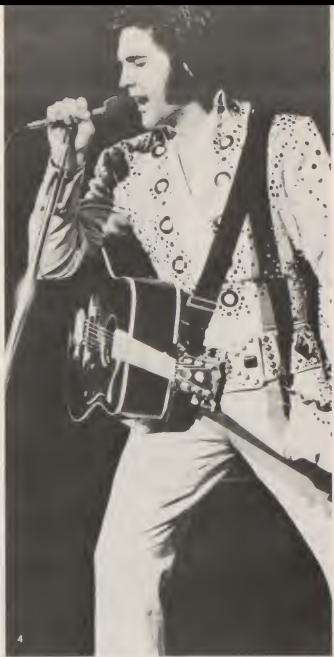

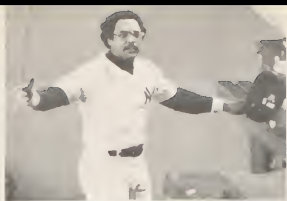

1. Freddie Prinze, star of the TV series "Chico and the Man," died in 1977. 2. Reggie Jackson, of the NY Yankees, smiles and waves to the crowd after he set a home run record during the 1977

World Series, by hitting three homers in one game. 3. Gene Simmons, the vampire figure of the rock group KISS, exhibits the kind of ghoulish antics that continue to attract large audiences wherever they go. 4. Elvis Presley, king of rock'n'roll, died in August of 1977. 5. George Willig, a toy maker by trade but a mountain climber in his heart, climbs up the sheer face of the World Trade Tower in New York City in May of 1977.

6. Janet Guthrie, the first woman to compete in the Indianapolis 500, pours water on herself in the pit area during a pit stop. 7. Bing Crosby, a singer who will be remembered for his White Christmases, died in October of 1977. 8. Newest face on the star scene in 1977 was Farah Fawcett-Majors, whose hairdo and slim figure made her name a household word. Here she is on the tennis court in Los Angeles.

Miracles Worked

"Helen knocked over the water; put another pitcher on!" ... "You pushed the baby out instead of the doll!" ... "Andy, you came in two pages too early."

"The Miracle Worker", performed on November 18 & 19, made each person in the audience wonder what they would do in Annie's place. The audience withdrew from wanting to change places with Annie, after seeing Helen's food in Annie's face. The thrill in Annie and Helen's mother that Helen learned to use her spoon and fold her napkin, washed away all feelings of sympathy for Annie. In the water scene, when Helen associates the word "water" with the wetness running out of the pump, the audience shared her triumph. See page 165 for the cast list.

1. "Yes Helen, It has a name!" 2. "Sarah dear, I don't want to go." 3. Annie "un-teaching Helen six years of pity." 4. "She's a Keller; she has the constitution of a goat." 5. "Get the tension in here!" 6. "I wish there was someone here to help me. I need a teacher as much as Helen." 7. "She knows! She knows!"

Spikers Drop Ball In 5th Year.

"Clean girls, let's win this one and make it five in a row!" "Let's Go Varsity! Let's Go!" Spike It! W, 10-0.

Guided by Coach Ujbanik and six returning seniors, the Girls Varsity Volleyball team managed to beat Tri-County Thursday night and this defeat moved them into the semi-finals on Saturday.

Much enthusiasm for fellow teammates and fans kept spirits up until Saturday. Everyone had their hopes high for securing the title of Sectional Champs for the fifth time in a row. The girls had won Sectional every year since they began, five years ago, and this year.

The second match against North White disappointed everyone. The girls stood a good chance of winning the Sectional if they got by North White. A few bad breaks and even more poor serving allowed North White to pull ahead and beat the Spikers, 12-0 and 15-11. North White did, however, go on to win the Sectional.

1. Sylvia Pihlak throws the ball. 2. Kim Wain looks on. 3. Anissa Kavagis prepares to attack. 4. Heather Longest congratulates one another. 5. Sue Nease makes the set ball while Neal Zylova watches. 6. The bench looks on in anticipation in the room. 7. Gail Zystra bumps the ball back. 8. Kelly Ott looks on. 9. Tara Nease, captain, bumps the ball backwards with her feet. 10. Vicki Robbins bumps the ball as Gail Ott. 11. Beth Mollen spikes the ball over the net.

Looks For The "Key Of Life"

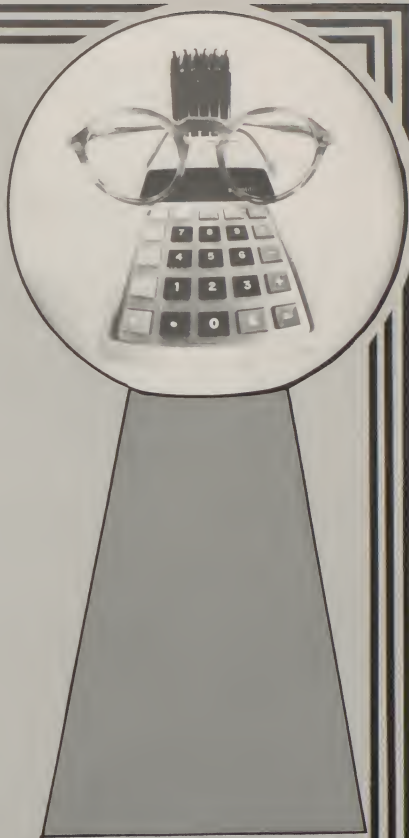

"Karen Holtberg's theme 'Keys of Life' became the dark horse winner." "I want the cover red!" ... "RED! If the cover isn't blue, I'm quitting." "December 1st deadline — we'll never make it." ... "Oh, yes we will!" "How about a student art contest?" "Selling '78 t-shirts" ... "NEAT!"

The Yearbook Staff sponsored an Art Contest for which the contestant drew his or her idea of the theme, "The Keys of Life". Frank Aloia not only won $10, but his idea made the cover of the 1977-78 Kougar Pride.

As the yearbook staff began its task of recording the year's history, they met the challenge of discovering the key to KV's spirit. Each section unlocked the story of a growing determination among the Kougars.

1. The Art Department presents its study in clay. 2. "Thumbs up" for the football team from Coach Maple. 3. Pep club builds spirit. 4. Linda Gray wishes that she hadn't made such a big pot with all the work involved. 5. Oom-pa, Oom-pa, Oom-pa comes the sound from Steve Zylstra's tuba. 6. Craig Froman uses his salesmanship for a full page ad.

ACADEMICS

Office Staff Brings Organization Out Of Chaos

Phones ringing and students demanding attention were the everyday sounds of the office. Even though it looked as if everyone was walking around not quite sure of what they were doing, they knew. The office assistants helped Mrs. McClugage by answering the phone, sorting the mail, and keeping track of the attendance.

The new attendance procedure brought in extra work in which everyone participated. Extra things that had to be done were tedious little jobs such as, writing down students' phone numbers who didn't call in to excuse themselves from school for the day, calling all of those people, or trying to find them if no one knew of their whereabouts.

1. Office assistants: Gayle Struble, Renee Marshall, Heidi Belstra, Sharon DeKock, Carol Christopher, Margaret Duttlinger, Laurie Odle, Rosemary DeKock, Sue Fraley, Betty Mahieu, Mary Sue Haring, Brenda Dobry, Terri Sanders, Beth Bozell. 2. Mr. Ryska 3. Mr. Crawford 4. Mrs. Klapp, Mrs. McClugage, Mrs. Stimple 5. "Hello, Kankakee Valley High School, May I help you?" answers Steve Oils. 6. Mr. Hamacher.

New School Rises

The busy year created many complications for the Administration Office but, as usual, they handled every situation with ease.

The energy crisis caused KV to shut off 1/3 of its lights and set the thermostats down to 65.

Construction began on the middle school in the spring of '77. Pora Construction Company worked through the heat, cold, and snowing weather, to meet their deadline of January, 1979.

The Administration Office worked hard in preparation of transferring and adding teachers to the middle school.

1. Crystal Bailey 2. Paul Scamihorn, superintendent 3. Linda Brown 4. Workers labor on the new middle school. 5. Carol Deardorff 6. Karen Froman 7. Board of Education.

Arousing Students

KV's English department had a wide range of classes students could choose from this year. The list included: Grammar, Mysteries, Jet, British Short Stories and various others to arouse students' and faculty interest.

Library Science students learned the proper way to use the card catalog for locating the books they wanted or needed. This skill helped students to find resources, and to write reports the way they were taught.

The Foreign Language classes attempted to plan another trip to Germany, giving students the opportunity of an educational and pleasurable experience. Unfortunately, lack of interest caused the size of the group to be small, so the trip was cancelled. Plans remained open for the prospect of the trip next school year.

1. Mrs. Gregory gives a brief talk about Mysteries. 2. Spooks and Oddities keep students interested in each story. 3. Heidi Belsta studies German. 4. Mrs. Mangas 5. Miss Swartzell 6. Mr. Osburn 7. Mr. Wortman 8. Mike Scott listens to one of the tapes in German. 9. Lois Kampenga gets the class' attention when she gives her speech. 10. Lisa Sanders looks up the Spanish word for mansion. 11. Mrs. Duncan 12. Mrs. Gregory 13. Mrs. Hanger

Keys To A Successful Business

Ten key adder, typing, accounting all lead to the skills of fast fingers, coordination, and brain work.

KV offered numerous business classes to teach the working of each machine, to develop different office practices, and to acquire skills that could be useful in each person's financial life.

Students competed for pins and awards in shorthand and typing which they received at the end of the year on Awards Day.

1. Mrs. Fritch 2. Diane DeKock and Thoma Flick take a speed typing test. 3. Mr. Hale 4. Mr. Sheppard 5. Mr. Walden 6. Sue L'Huillier and Vivian Hancock work hard in their second year typing class. 7. Tammy Green adds up her figures in ten key adder. 8. John McQuade tries to get the feel of a ten key adder.

Heads Up!

1. Mr. Bonham 2. Mr. Caraco 3. Miss C. Groet 4. Miss Groet helps a student stand on his hands. 5. Mr. McEwan 6. P.E. students take a little time to fool around. 7. Miss Urbanik 8. Kevin Hamstra and Kim Pardus learn to use their First Aid knowledge. 9. Alan Ooms tries his skill at tennis.

Students' minds were enlightened with the fundamentals of the various games and activities their school had to offer. There was ample time to practice each new and old skill.

The President's physical fitness tests helped to finish the year. These tests also showed how far the students had progressed. Skillfulness was rewarded by a certificate of 50% to 84%. A patch was given to those over 85%.

Miss Urbanik and Mr. Caraco joined the P.E. department.

Field Trips Highlight History Classes

Various government field trips caused KV students to sacrifice sleeping time to arrive at their destination on time such as: the State Capital and Gary City Court. Seeing legislation in action gave students an insight to the workings of government.

Even though the field trips were fun, students had to come back to the classroom and apply their newly learned knowledge to the concepts of today's government.

1. Mr. Bolka 2. KV students tried to keep their interest on the history lectures. 3. A heavy load off a few students' minds after taking a test. 4. Mr. Jones 5. Mr. Lewis 6. A day to remember in Personality when students talk about today's lesson. 7. Mr. Metzger 8. Mr. Sakel 9. State Capital Building.

Interesting Moments In Science

Plants grew and baby pigs were dissected in the interest of science.

Experiments and films were shown with extra-curricular activities. Field trips proved exciting for the ones who wanted to further their knowledge of the sciences.

As the students visited Indiana University, Donald C. Cook Nuclear Plant, and Linde Air, they covered a wide range of all the fields of science. The most interesting one was the trip to Wisconsin's Yurk's Observatory.

1. Mr. Helms 2. Mr. Lauraitis 3. Ms. Waggoner 4. The dissection of a pig 5. Mr. Maple 6. Ms. Montgomery 7. Mr. Plomaritis 8. Mr. Risinger 9. Craig Froman and Jeff Musker work on a lab in physics. 10. Bruno Kucinaskas and Steve Zylstra listen to a Geiger counter and detect ionized particles in the air.

Enthusiasm Flavors Home Economics

KV's Home Economics department really got into the swing of things in '78. Two new teachers, Miss DeYoung and Miss T. Groet, joined with the other Home Ec. staff this year to help with the enthusiastic groups of cooks and seamstresses.

The boys were as active in cooking and learning the basic rules of good housekeeping as the girls. Even though the Home Ec. teachers were overwhelmed with the boys' cooking abilities, Miss Cloud said, "I wish the boys were required to take a sewing class," explaining that there are no limitations on what classes they can take.

Miss Cloud also added, "I wish I could take my housing classes to the museum in Lowell which displays many different types and styles of furniture."

1. Miss Cloud 2. Kathy Overby and Jennifer Gibbs enjoy the "hors d'oeuvres" in Entertaining. 3. Miss DeYoung 4. Miss T. Groet 5. Hemming sheer material is very difficult, but for Rhonda Van Swol and J.J. Hershman it seems to be a breeze. 6. Mrs. Yeoman 7. "Just this last touch and I'll be done!" 8. Ripping out mistakes could be very frustrating but Linda Morris and Wanda Stilley enjoy the time to talk.

Do-It-Yourselfers

The Industrial Art Department offered vocationally oriented classes for students not following an academic curricula.

Students learned how to keep their cars running longer by fixing minor break-downs, and keeping them clean inside and out.

The do-it-yourselfers not only put their minds to cars, but became drafters and made future home designs and blue prints.

1. Mr. Foster 2. Andy Hixson practices his welding ability by putting pieces of wire together. 3. Mr. Hershman 4. Mr. Hine 5. Walt Young works earnestly on making a lamp out of a piece of pine. 6. Tim Schmidt checks out the battery to find it's A-Okay. 7. Mr. Hummel 8. Mr. Runk 9. Kevin Schultz works on the rear end of his car. 10. Mr. Thureanos

Fine Arts Liven Up The School Year For Interested Students

Walking by the art room the smell of oil paints, potter's clay and turpentine drifted into the halls. The best part of all was walking in and seeing all of those creative minds and hands at work. The students seemed to enjoy this hour of the day when they could let their imaginations fly. Many of the students had their paintings displayed in the halls for the enjoyment of the students and faculty. Others that were not hung were kept in prospect of the art fair.

The sounds of singing and playing instruments were not unusual at K.V., with all the concerts, contests, and most of all practicing. For the second year in a row the senior high and junior high choirs performed at South-lake Mall.

1. Kent Thomas puts the finishing touches on his painting. 2. Mr. Bakker 3. Mrs. Miller 4. Jim Seegers takes pictures for his photography class. 5. Mrs. Myers 6. Mr. Scott 7. Rhonda Jones drawing pictures in her mind instead of on the paper. 8. Mr. Wharton 9. Jerome Dresher molds a piece of clay on the potter's wheel in Ceramics class.

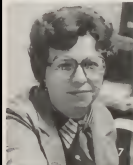

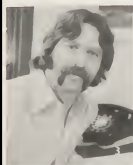

First place piano contests: Cindy McKinney, and Kathleen Grube. Band solo award winners: Cheryl Dybcio, Lorna Young, Norma O'Bara, and Tim Rossmannith. First place chorus award winners: Lisa Cheever, Mary Gustin, and Dana Hogle.

Library And A.V. Provide Additional Learning Experiences

Ms. Smith and Mrs. Kurdelak had many assistants to help with library work in 1977. The assistants helped by checking out books and putting books that were returned back on the shelves in their proper places. The library received many new books, and the students and faculty seemed to enjoy reading all of them.

Mr. Hartzler was constantly busy this year ordering films and making sure that the audio-visual equipment was kept in working order. Mr. Hartzler's assistants had the responsibility of making sure that all of the projectors, record players and equipment were delivered to the right room with the correct films and records.

1. Librarians, Ms. Smith, and Mrs. Kurdelak 2. Mr. Hartzler 3. Mr. Rich 4. Library assistants: Darlene Thomas, Cheryl Ferguson, Liz Britt, Melody Harrison, Monica Butler, Ann Bubalo, Linda Earp, Karen Dexter, Kathy Kammer, and Liz Hetrick 5. Ms. Richardson 6. A.V. assistants: Don Myers, Alan Burnette, Sharon DeKock, Tim Kearney, Ralph Owens. 7. Mrs. Traster 8. Denise Wisz checks out a library book. 9. Mr. Wortman helps Chris Schultz with her homework.

Off On A Tangent In Math Class

From algebraic equations to geometric planes and figures to trigonometry sines and cosines, the math department was a never ending maze of new discoveries.

The use of calculators in trig provided more problem solving practice for seniors. Mrs. Lennon stated that seniors Karen Holtberg, Marilyn Henning, and Cliff Passuello consistently proved senior math's strongest students.

Sophomores were normally discouraged from taking Algebra II. Soph. Tim Rossmannith not only held his own in the junior math class, but gave many classmates a race for outstanding performance.

1. Don Watt and Michelle Dunn discuss the problem in order to get it solved. 2. Mr. Abbring 3. Mrs. Lennon 4. Jim Wallace, John Riggle and Sharon DeKock study for their next quiz in Algebra II. 5. Mr. Tillema 6. Mr. Taylor 7. Devin McGuire shows how he proves his equation to be true. 8. Paul Moolenaar shows the class what a breeze this problem is to figure out. 9. Mr. Taylo tells the class another one of his jokes, and they all pretend to be amused.

Extra Help, Extra Study

Study halls kept getting larger but finally became a place to study. Faithful study hall teacher Mrs. Kennedy kept the noise and paperwads to a minimum so serious students could work.

The special education department used a system called mainstreaming. The teachers only had the students for a maximum of three hours a day. During those three periods they taught subjects such as science, math, reading and also taught basic skills in a vocation that would enable them to be successful in the future. Next fall they will be starting a new study program called the vocational work study program. All of the students enjoyed their learning experiences. Best of all, the teachers felt that they had accomplished a great system.

1. Mrs. Kennedy 2. Tim Schimdt seems to be using his study hall time to get those last few problems figured out. 3. Mr. Oliver 4. Phillip Jungles raises his hand in response to Mr. Oliver's question. 5. Carole Kessler is busy working her study hall hour away.

What's Cooking At K.V.?

As an everyday routine the cooks, custodians, and bus drivers kept up with the hustle-bustle of KV students.

The cooks worked very hard each day preparing hot lunches and goodies for the a la carte line.

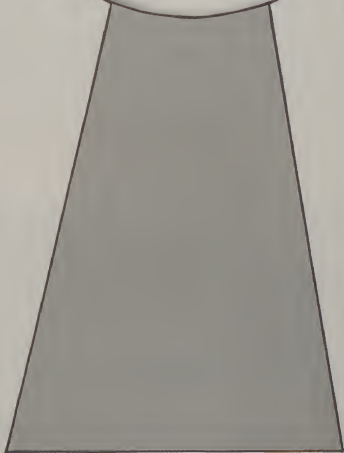

The custodians handled one crisis after another. A student always seemed to need a custodian to unjam a locker or two.

When it came to the end of the day, every student delighted to see the bus drivers, even though some tried to give the bus drivers a hard time.

1. The cooks get started with the hustle and bustle of cooking lunch. 2. Mr. Wood works hard at delivering supplies to the art room. 3. The cooks keep busy passing the trays down the line. 4. Mrs. Crawford doesn't just help with the cooking but does the paper work also. 5.

The food is made in very large quantities. 6. Mrs. Becker, the school nurse. 7. Students rush to the bus to get a back seat. 8. "OH! It's time to go home." 9. The trip home is usually enjoyed by the students after a long, hard day at school.

PEOPLE

Unlock The Doors;

Ordering announcements, caps and gowns, Senior Ads Day, and more helped get the "78"ers started for their last year at KVHS.

Although the year had its ups and downs, each senior remembered good times with friends at K.V. and the class of 1978.

1. Senior lockers are decorated during homecoming festivities. 2. Powder Puff cheerleaders: Garry Jones, Dave Harper, Roger Huhn, Jon Nelson, Jim Jones, Kevin Oezer, and Mark Murray, demonstrate their grace and form. 3. Close Encounters With Senioritis

Senioritis: A disease encountered by senior students with the coming of spring, the prospect of graduation, and the final departure from KVHS.

The first symptoms appeared when underclassmen seemed immature, and seniors suddenly "grew up" and a more serious attitude became apparent.

But Senioritis didn't affect the seniors' good times much. They enjoyed such things as: they sold ads on year-book ads day, competed in the annual Powder Puff game, attended concerts, had dates, and played in sports.

Growing up and having fun became part of being a senior.

1. Shari Zeck and Heidi Belstra help one another in their fourth year of German. 2. Candy Manns gets a BIG kick out of cheerleading. 3. Senior class officers: Pam Scott — President, Mark Murray — Vice-President, Rhonda Jones — Secretary-Treasurer. 4. Carol Christopher exclaims, "Mr. Ryska, I didn't know you were standing there!" 5. Danny Marquart "appears" to get desperate. 6. Craig Whitaker hopes a pepsi will help him make it through the day. 7. Gail Zylstra asks Sue Nuss, "How do you work this thing anyway?"

Where Do We Go From Here?

Being a senior wasn't all fun and games. There came a time when everyone started seriously planning for the future. Some had already decided what they wanted to do. Jon Nelson planned to become part of his father's farm, while Dina Patzschke made plans for her wedding in August.

Many sent their applications to colleges. Sue Feliki planned to attend a horse showmanship school in Colorado. Sally Mak would attend Purdue University and major in Psychology. Dean Wilson wanted to study at Indiana University and try out for the football team.

Even though everyone had different plans, they all had one thing in common . . . their desire to become the 1978 graduates of Kankakee Valley High School.

1. Sue Springsteen and Donna Hanawich enjoy (??) the meal they cooked in Home Ec. 2. What football player wouldn't want to take out one of these dolls? 3. Jeff Wills demonstrates his skill in welding class. 4. Hard working Lisa Cheever studeis for another test. 5. Don't jump Jerry, you'll have enough credits to graduate! 6. Accidents will happen, just ask John McQuade. 7. Football team captain, Craig Froman, chats about the homecoming game. 8. Sheila Bricker agrees — it's finger lickin' good! 9. Ruse Boissy isn't the type of person you want to mess with.

Glimpses Of Seniors

Gone are the days when life was carefree. The seniors no longer could frolic around. With the passage of time, from babies to young adults, responsibilities increased. The top on the list was work. Many seniors started working to finance their college education. Others just needed the extra cash for their weekend activities. Some jobs also provided the experience needed for future careers.

1. Sheila Woudema weaves a first prize wall hanging. 2. Carol VanKeppel and Donna Kaluf experiment. 3. Brenda Dobry earns her spending money working at Dairy Queen. 4. Cliff Passuello adds it all up. 5. Sheila Bricker and Darrell King represented the senior class for Heart Fund. 6. Jeff Wills bakes a batch of chocolate chip cookies. 7. Debbie Conley picks up her senior pictures.

Juniors Respond To Challenges

The juniors of 1977-78 learned responsibility throughout the year. When faced with the task of raising money for Prom, they met the challenge with the amount of $6062. The juniors also won two of three queen contests of the year. Jeanne Van Keppel and Tina Bracich became queens in the Heart Fund and FFA Sweet-heart contests, respectively. Five juniors went to Boys' and Girls' State this year. Jim Wallace, Steve Zylstra, Joe Bubalo, Gayle Struble, and Lisa Sanders made that trip.

In the fall, the juniors started the exhausting series of tests that meet the class every year. Their hard work opened the door to the rest of their lives.

Yea Rah Juniors!

The 1977-78 school year found the junior class swamped with homework and left them busy trying to fit required courses into their schedules. Classes such as chemistry and Algebra II suddenly became popular as juniors prepared for college.

Junior spirit was at an all time high when the junior girls defeated the senior girls 42-0 in the annual powderpuff football game. Also, many of the junior football players participated in the Homecoming game. The spirit continued through volleyball, basketball and track seasons, involving many juniors in all the sports.

Juniors Show Spirit

Throughout the year, the class of 1979 showed a spirited attitude, as witnessed in the last minute push of magazine sales for Prom. During the Christmas season, a small pine tree could be found in the junior locker area, showing the true spirit of the class. As the year came to a close, with tests and exams filling the daily schedules, the juniors found themselves hard-pressed to keep up with their homework. But, the class came through, and Mr. Taylo received their completed assignments to the last day.

And so, the class of 1979 closed out the year, looking forward to the next — their last here at KVHS.

Sophomores Await To Reign In Future Years

Queens, princesses, kings and escorts seemed to be a big part of the sophomore class. Kim Schultz was nominated as F.F.A. Sweetheart and as homecoming princess. Karen Hamstra was also nominated for F.F.A. Sweetheart.

Terri Sanders, escorted by Jeff Green, ran as the sophomore Heart Fund queen candidate. The sophomores fell short of the junior class and came in second place by raising approximately $600.00.

Although the sophomores helped put in their share of collecting money, the time came for them to "dish it out". Many questions faced the class as they finally got to order their class rings. Some of the questions were, "Should I get rainbow or what about starburst?" "I like this color stone. Don't you?" After pondering their many questions they finally chose a style of ring that would meet with their satisfaction.

As other opportunities came their way, the sophomores realized the significance of what their parents had been saying for years, "Money doesn't grow on trees."

Dealing With Maturity

More clubs and extra-curricular activities, new, different classroom experiences, and the process of growing more mature filled many hours of each sophomore's day.

Although the sophomores had a few times where their maturity seemed in doubt, (i.e., the letting loose and killing of mice in the locker area and burning of posters), the majority of the time, the class acted with good taste and judgement.

Kougar Boogar Leads Class In Spirit

"This Kougar Boogar says, 'Wamp those Warriors!'" The sign underneath the Kougar Boogar, the sophomore class mascot, expressed the feelings of the class. Some of these feelings were hope, excitement, and school spirit.

Cheerleaders along with girls from the class decorated the sophomore locker area with pastel streamers, balloons, and posters with encouraging themes to show their school spirit.

The sophomores also showed their spirit by participating in Elementary Day, Jeans-Jersey-Pigtails Day, Walt Disney Day, Clash Day and Red and White Day for Homecoming. For Sectional they came as their favorite movie star and also came dressed in the school colors.

Although KV lost both their homecoming and first sectional games the sophomore class stood by and helped cheer on their team. In most things the sophomore class supported and helped their school and teams.

Even though homecoming and sectional were heartbreakers, most remembered that they still had two more years in which to back and cheer their teams to victory.

Looking For Tomorrow

As the year drew to a close, the sophomores were eager for school to end, eager for summer, and eagerly anticipated their junior year.

Looking back over the year, they found that important things had happened to them. Many "got their licenses" and a few their own cars. For others, they waited with bright expectations for the summer's driver's ed and the obtaining of their licenses.

ATHLETICS

Football Takes A Bad Bounce For Kougars

Through thick and thin, the 1977 football team came through, fielding a 2-8 record. Although the team lost to some key opponents, they came through with some exciting games. Coming back from an early loss last year, the rushing Kougars defeated non-conference foe, South Newton. In the "bone-drenching" game against Lake Station Eagles, the winning Kougars proved they would never give up.

Since the team effort seemed to lack something, individual achievements shone through. Bob Kaper, quarterback, led the offensive attack. Passes grabbed by Craig Froman or George Kruizenga and hand-offs of the pigskin to Dave Harper or Dean Wilson, picked up the needed yardage. Seniors: Jerry Furst, Dean Wilson, and Jim Seegers, worked as quarterbacks of the defensive squad. They led the team to achieve major tackles with help from Mitch Schultz and Mike Van-Keppel.

But it seemed whenever everything went together, an injury to a key player occurred. With each injury, their hopes and expectations became injured as well.

New Strategy "Sets Up" Spikers

The KV Girls' Volleyball team ended the 1977-78 season with a 13-9 record. The hiring of a new coach, Sue Urbanik, adjusted the team to the strategies and practices of a different leader.

With six returning seniors, hopes for the team ran high. The girls worked well as a team and had many achievements. Setters Tara Nesius, Sue Nuss, and Kathy Olis set the ball up for Betty Mahieu, Vicki Robbins, Kim Watt, or Gail Zylstra to spike it down on their opponent.

The Junior Varsity worked hard on learning fundamentals to help them reach their goal of someday playing varsity. They ended the season with a record of 9-8.

The team's outstanding player, Kim Watt, received the "Most Valuable Player" and "Most Points Served" awards along with being elected to the All Conference Team.

Cross-Country Team Runs To Victory

Despite one of their toughest schedules in years, the 1977-78 Cross Country team battled its way to a respectable 8-9 record. In the big meets of the conference, the running Kougars never failed to place lower than fourth. The team, which boasted three returning lettermen, finished tenth at the Twin Lakes Invitational and thirteenth at the IHSSA Sectional meet.

Over the season, the Kougars learned the difference between winning and losing. In the most lopsided victory against West Central, the team narrowly missed a perfect score. In that meet, five out of the seven runners placed. Some runners said the most exciting race matched KV against Boone Grove. The outcome earned another victory for KV — but by only one point.

Dennis Seegers earned the Most Valuable Runner while Dave Zylstra received the Most Improved Runner.

Grapplers Wrestle For Sectional Title

"It is better to have wrestled and lost, than not to have wrestled at all," signified the belief of every Grappler. The tough scheduling against northern schools made some Grapplers think twice about this saying. This scheduling hindered the chances for a winning record, but it aided them in the long run for sectional.

Under the new leadership of Coach Caraco, the Grapplers finished with a 5-9 record and became the Sectional Champions. By meeting this challenge, they advanced 9 men to the regional, 7 crowned as individual champs in their own weight class. Gary Conley also became the recipient of the Most Valuable Wrestler and Most Pins awards, while Jeff Wills took home the Most Dedicated and Most Takedowns.

When the senior Grapplers completed their season, they continued to wrestle with the unknown world and win, because of the little extras. The extras being hard work, dedication, and pride which they learned through WRESTLING!

Varsity Overwhelms Opponents

The Kougar varsity basketball team finished the 1977-78 season second in conference, much to the dismay of the other conference teams. The team started the season with a loss to the eventual state runner-up, Merrillville. Once the Kougars got on the right track they became hard to stop, proving this by KV's 83-59 victory over West Central.

The varsity being backed by a strong JV team, as witnessed in the Sectional, gave four JV regulars, Troy Jackson, Dave Zylstra, Alan Burnette, and Brian Pruis, a chance for some varsity action.

For their efforts Dan Myers and Scott Green were chosen for the annual East-West All-Star game. The team as a whole ended the season with a 9-11 record.

Young Team Matures

The girls' varsity basketball team struggled through the season with a 7-10 record and a third place finish in conference.

This year became one of rebuilding, with only 4 lettermen returning. By the end of the season, 3 first year players proved able to start varsity.

The game plan of all opponents was to control senior Kim Watt. She averaged 10 points per game and honored the team by being named to the all-conference squad. She also received the best freethrow percentage and offensive player of the year. Tara Nesius earned the best defensive player award.

The young J.V. team learned alot by experiencing game situations. They finished with a season record of 3-7.

Hopes for next years' team remained high because of the much needed experience gained throughout the year.

JV Sets Record With 17-1 Mark!

The 1977-78 Junior Varsity Basketball team astounded and amazed the fans by battling its way to a fantastic season record of 17-1. This was the best record of any team ever at KV.

The JV team started its season against a tough Merrillville team. The fighting Pirates dealt the young Kougars their first and only loss of the season. The JV team bounced back though, and captured the Kankakee Valley Junior Varsity Holiday Tournament.

Later in the season, other teams gave the JV a run for their money. A few examples were the 36-33 win over North Newton, the 48-46 win over Tri-County in overtime, and a hard fought 31-30 victory over Calumet.

The JV team also set the record for most points scored in one game (81-35 over Morgan Township).

Congratulations to the Junior Varsity team of the 1977-78 basketball season!

Swinging Into A Winning Season

The Varsity Baseball team began to shine this year. A well-rounded unit of young men made up the team as they finished their best season in KV history with a 13-8 record and a high finish in conference.

One of the major keys to victory became the hiring of new Head Coach Broughton. He taught the guys how to perfect the basic fundamentals which gave them confidence in themselves.

Jeff Kordys and Craig Froman made a winning battery combination, with Kordys ending with a 9-3 won-loss record. The majority of the hitting came from Frank Rohzon, Kordys, and Froman with Rohzon leading the team with a batting average well over .300. When these three didn't hit Don Watt, Dave Howard, Mike Overby, Don Capouch, Mike Molon, Dean Wilson, and Ralph Owens backed them up.

Wilson also proved that patience and a "good eye" came in handy by being walked 28 times. In the stolen base department, Froman beat out Watt, his closest competitor, with 16 steals.

The J.V. team, made up of mostly freshmen, got the added experience needed and will be in the lime-light in the years to come. They completed the season with a 1-4 record.

1. Jeff Kordys demonstrates his winning style in pitching. 2. A time out is taken to talk over some new strategy at the mound. 3. Don Watt looks for the coach's sign while rounding third. 4. Varsity Track Teams Sprints To A 9-3 Record

When the Kougars track team opened the year with a convincing win over conference foe and arch rival Rensselaer, people knew it would be an exciting season.

In the first meets, many records were broken and many sectional qualifiers surfaced. As the year progressed, things got better and better for the Kougars. For instance, in the conference meet KV came up with two champs: Dave Cavinder in high hurdles and Jeff Wallace in the half-mile run. The team sent seven qualifiers to the sectional meet with two, Dave Cavinder and Jim Wallace, qualifying for regional.

In all, the team set seven records in 1978, while enroute to a 9-3 dual meet mark.

Girls Get On The Right Track

The girls' varsity track team ran through many opponents this year. They accomplished quite alot, with many doing outstanding individually. However, the inability for an "all-out" practice on the unfinished track hindered their efforts.

Some girls, with aches and pains of pulled muscles, lowered their times or increased individual distances. Dee Hendon lowered her own 100 yard dash record to an 11.0, while Batty Mahieu in hurdles and Michelle Pierson in the 440 dash, managed to quicken their times to an 11.36 and a 67.09 respectively.

Six girls qualified for sectional with Kim Watt advancing to regional in the softball throw. Kim Watt and Betty Mahieu received the Most Valuable track athlete awards because of their outstanding accomplishments in track this year.

Golfers Overcome Many Obstacles

The 1978 golf team forsook a hard job ahead of them. The lack of competitive experience made their task all the greater.

With four returning lettermen, their quest for a winning season became better. The first year golfers even proved capable of standing firmly on their own two feet, by consistently shooting the low scores. The team finished with a 7-10 record.

Mike VanKeppel led the Kougars throughout the season with Kent Bierma, Andy Kozak, John Riggle, Mark Rayonac, and Larry Rudis in close pursuit.

Every meet showed improvement from each golfer. Without the loss of a senior, expectation for the following year seems great!!

STUDENT LIFE

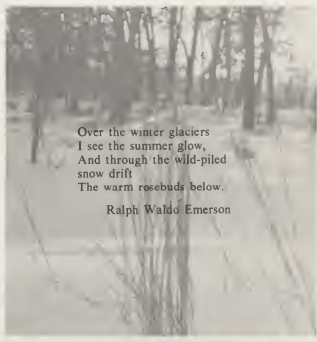

Snowbound!

Sixty m.p.h. winds and ten inches of snow left Indiana snowbound for several days. Eight to ten foot drifts buried cars and roadways making travel impossible. The students of KV had an unexpected holiday from school and made the most of the situation. Some worked to dig out their driveways while others enjoyed playing in the drifts. Many also enjoyed snowmobiling.

This Is Us!!!

Mood, time, style and weather all change as a year marches forward. Along with them people change; they grow and they learn, they laugh and they cry. Through all this they find new and better ways of expressing themselves.

The K.V. students were no exception. They gained knowledge, but, more importantly, they gained a new part of themselves.

The students displayed their new selves proudly for others as if to say, "Here I am. This is really me!"

Next season will mean more changes and more gains, but for now, this is us, the students of Kankakee Valley.

Special Olympics Place Second

For the first time K.V. participated in the Special Olympics. Coached by G.E. Oliver, the team advanced to district competition for Northwest Indiana. Winning preliminary rounds against defending state champs, Logan Central A by 3 points, 30-27, and a smash victory over LaPorte County 38-27; the team met against Logan Community. The game held at Notre Dame's Auditorium and Convention Center in South Bend was both challenging and exciting. The Kougars struggled to attain semi-state competition but fell short of the goal in the final round against Logan Community, losing 43-32.

ORGANIZATIONS

Working With And For The Community

Sunshiners led an active 1978 year. They started out the year with Sunshine week, October 3-9, by serving rolls and coffee to the teachers, giving cakes to the office workers, and corsages to the cooks and janitors. Thirty-five Sunshiners attended the district convention at Huntington High School and thirty went to state convention at Carmel High School.

The annual Rock-a-thon raised nearly $2,000. The proceeds were given to Sunshiner Tina Gard.

One of the main events of the year was the annual Fall Dance held November 4. As usual the dance was well attended.

Despite bad weather, the Mother-

Daughter Salad Bar was held on its original date of January 17. However, the weather postponed the Daddy Date Night from February 14 to March 28.

Nearly 800 people came to the Ideal Lady Tea on April 11. Refreshments served in the cafeteria brought all ladies and girls together to form one happy group. Roving musicians from St. Joseph's College and an accordion player provided entertainment for the evening.

Besides all these activities, the Sunshiners also sold candy and popcorn at every home football and basketball game.

FFA And Science Are Down To Earth Clubs

FFA had 10 major committees this year that helped accomplish 120 activities. The following persons chaired these committees: D. Watt, J. Seegers, Supervised Farming; B. Murray, K. Oezer, Co-operation; S. DeYoung, A. Ooms, Community Service; G. Hamstra, J. Nelson, Leadership; B. Kerkes, R. Kikkert, Earning and Savings; H. Nelson, Conduct of meeting; B. VanKley, G. Greathouse, Scholarship; J.R. Misch, C. Schoon, Recreation; G. Greathouse, J. Nelson, Public Relations; M. Harper, State and National activities. FFA also sponsored a skating party in honor of the new queen Tina Bracich.

This year brought a change to KV's Science Club. The members decided to bring more "life" to their club. They sponsored a trip to I.U. in Bloomington for any interested persons. Besides grasping a few of the wonders of the world's largest cyclotron, the students also witnessed the beauty fall brought to the state. Three other trips to Cook's Nuclear Plant, Yurkes Observatory, and Linde Gas allowed members the chance to see other wonders. Attempts were made to rejuvenate the science fair, but due to insufficient interest, plans were delayed. Members remained hopeful for next year.

Marching Out In Style

"Wow! We finally got new band uniforms!" ... "The concert is about to begin and I'm so scared." ... "Somebody is off beat!" ... "I wish it'd quit raining!"

It was off to another long year with KV's top-notched band. They began the year by marching in pouring rain to give wet but good half-time performances. They then proceeded to play at concerts and sent pep band to liven up spirits during basketball games.

The twirler Carrie Hittle and Jennifer Odle and majorettes Pam Schriefer and Aleta Stansberry led the fearless marching band while performing on the football field.

Pom Pon girls marched beside the wet band and did dances to popular beats during halftime.

The Symphonic Band did a beautiful job at the spring concert and graduation ceremony. Credit goes to Mr. Scott for producing "a great musical year."

Drawing Foreign Letters

"¡Buenos días! ¿Cómo estás?"
"¡Hola! Estoy muy bien, gracias."
"Guten Tag, wie geht es ihnen?"
"Gut, und dir?" "Vocabulary, vocabulary, vocabulary!"

The main event of the year for Spanish Club was to be the Christmas party. Due to cancellation of school, it was postponed. It took place on March 13 and had a St. Patrick's day theme. Members broke a piñata and saw slides of the Girl Scout trip to Mexico. Refreshments were served Mexican style.

The German Club again made plans for a trip to Germany. Insufficient interest and cost factors for the smaller group caused the interested people to shelve the plans for hopeful realization next year.

One event of Art Club took the members to Beverly Shores, IN, to see Nauib, a sculptor. He talked to the students about the different types of sculpture. They raised money by having a cake raffle at a home football game.

During Easter vacation the members spent many hours painting pictures in the rooms and halls of the children's ward in Porter Memorial Hospital.

The sectional brought a chance for the Lettermen to be useful. Members helped by holding ropes to keep fans off the floor during halftimes and between games. The club also inducted about 30 new members this year.

The Life Of A Rah-Rah

The life of a cheerleader ... "Mom, I can't find my red bloomers" ... "Hurry up, Dad, or I'm going to be late" ... "I don't want to wear the black skirts" ... "K-O-U-G-A-R-S" ... "My throat's sore" ... "Smash Em!"

The Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleaders attended camp at Vincennes. Both squads won super-squad awards and several ribbons. They also learned new cheers, motions, jumps and mounts. The cheerleaders held a car wash, bake sale, sold calendars, and organized pep sessions. They made spirit packs and gave several parties for Kougars teams. The girls also put in long hours of practice, preparing to back our players faithfully and developing the ever famous "Smash Em" mount.

Pep Club attempted to organize a flash card section to perform during basketball games. This fell through, however, due to lack of enthusiasm. Pep Club sponsored the Homecoming Dance and supported the cheerleaders at the football and basketball games.

Newspaper Staff Overcomes Obstacles

"I turned my story in yesterday. Why didn't it get in the paper? . . . Oh, the deadline was two weeks ago?" "You dropped what? . . . NO! Please not the new typewriter!"

The newspaper staff started off the '77-'78 school year with the purchase of an electric typewriter. This came about through the hard efforts of past and present staff members. This was the first year the newspaper staff was totally separate from Mrs. Gregory's journalism classes.

The contracted printer didn't meet HIS deadlines, so the first half of the year the paper had to be printed at KV. The office printed and supplied the paper for these issues.

Through the sale of ads, Valentine day sachets and hearts, the staff earned enough money to contract a new printer to print the last five issues; one being their annual April Fools' issue.

There were several new formats added to the paper; two being articles about interesting and talented students in KV and a special interest column. The February 28th issue was written and printed in the style of an old time newspaper. The overwhelming response from the seniors allowed the staff to publish two Senior Issues.

Mrs. Gregory, the advisor, gave these words of thanks, "Although we had lots of frustrations, thanks to the support from the school, the staff, and the community, we finally reached our goal of having the paper professionally printed again."

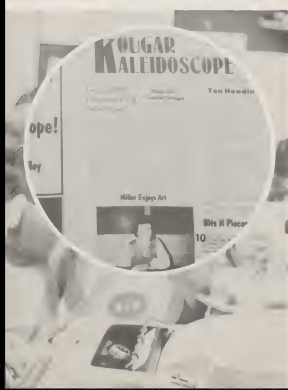

Journalism Club was a new club at KV this year. This club was started to create and publish a literary magazine written strictly by the students and faculty of KV. The Journalism Club felt that this would promote interest from the school and community toward potential writers. The school provided the paper for the inside while the club made the covers and illustrated the magazine. The magazine was appropriately called "Inspiration" and two issues of it were sold during the Spring.

National Honor Society attended a showing of "Godspell" on April 7, 1978. They also tried to organize and plan a trip to Washington D.C., but lack of interest caused this trip to be postponed until a later date.

During a Math Club meeting most members could be found involved in a game of Helix. This strategy game was being played in preparation for the St. Joseph's College Math Contest. The five team members who participated were Bruno Kucinaskas, Diana Swart, Steve Zylstra, Joe Bubalo, and Lisa Sanders. The alternate team member was Cindy McKinney. The KV team did not win the contest, but the team scored the highest on the written test of any of the five other participating schools.

The club held the second sixth grade contest in the spring. There were students from De Motte, DeMotte Christian, and Wheatfield who participated in the written test and the strategy game Helix. All who attended or helped with the contest felt that they had an enjoyable and knowledge building time.

Kougar Pride Staff Opens Door

In the beginning God created the yearbook staff, yearbook representatives, and the dreaded deadlines; chaos evolved. The chaos was, however, overshadowed by the hard work, dedication, and bright ideas possessed by each staff member.

Yearbooking wasn't all work and no play. Six staff members attended a yearbook workshop at Culver in August. Fresh ideas flooded the yearbook room.

After putting the task of clearing water and creating aside, all relaxed at Mrs. Duncan's Christmas party. February found the staff swamped with work, but a successful yearbook dance helped to ease the tension.

The long hours of layout designing, copy writing, and proof reading have all come together in this, the ninth issue of the KOUGAR PRIDE.

1. Sue Nuss, Tina Risner, and Tara Nesius are taking care of business. 2. Our Editor-in-chief, Karen Holtberg, gets away from it all and enjoys the courtyard. 3. Mrs. Duncan our "courageous sponsor" is caught with a little yearbook humor. 4. Jennifer Riggle works until the last second of class, while the clock occupies Cindy McKinney's attention. 5. Betsy Arnold and Mindy Flick work away at producing copy. 6. Our assistant editor Jeanne VanKeppel, finds time to sneak to her locker. 7. Sharon DeKock gets involved with last year's book. 8. "Give us your money!" 9. The photography staff, Jennifer Riggle, Darcy Green, Peggy Colvin, Pam Nelson, Frank Aloia, and Tara Nesius "ham it up" on the spiral stairway. 10. Looks like the Ads Staff: Tina Risner, Sue Springsteen, Rhonda Jones, Janet Kaeb, Sue Feleki, and Loretta Martin have the same idea. 11. Jim Wallace and Karen Holtberg get in the Christmas spirit with hopes of bringing it to the pub. 12. Our Sport Staff: Jim Wallace, Betty Mahieu and Sue Nuss get in the mood of their section. (Not pictured Dan Marquardt.)

Many thanks to Mrs. Duncan and our representative Pat Lindemann for all their help. The Kougar Pride Staff as follows: Senior Section — Janet Kaeb, Sue Springsteen; Senior Life — Rhonda Jones (head), Loretta Martin; Student Life — Sharon DeKock (head), Jennifer Riggle; Sports — Betty Mahieu (head), Sue Nuss, Jim Wallace, Dan Marquardt; Organizations — Tina Risner (head), Cindy McKinney, Academics — Sue Feleki (head), Besty Arnold, Juniors — Jim Wallace (head), Sharon DeKock; Sophomores — Cindy McKinney (head), Mindy Flick; Index — Betty Mahieu; Recorder of Sales — Cindy McKinney; Recorder of Pictures — Darcy Green; Photographers — Tara Nesius (head), Pam Nelson, Frank Aloia, Peggy Colvin, Jennifer Riggle, Darcy Green; Ads — Loretta Martin (head), Janet Kaeb, Tina Risner, Sue Feleki, Sue Springsteen, Asst. Editor — Jeanne VanKeppel, Editor — Karen Holtberg.

Chorus Gets Gong!

"Wow, I don't believe I made it to State!" ... "I don't want to sing that song" ... "I hate solos!" ... "Breathe from the diaphragm" ... "GONG!"

The High School Chorus gave a Christmas Concert at the Southlake Mall and a Spring Concert in the auditorium. Lisa Cheever, Mary Grover, and Dana Hogle won district and went on to state to win 2nd. Maureen DeBarge also won 2nd in state for a solo. The Chorus spent many hours practicing. They also had lots of fun playing the Gong Show during class.

Pathfinders didn't have a very active year, although they did have a roller skating party at the Roller Crown in Crown Point.

1. Keri McQuire, Mr. Sakel and Dawn Jungles discuss plans for Pathfinders. 2. Pathfinders: Wanda Stilley, Linda Morris, Cindy Schlarp, Mary Haring, Laurie Simmons, ROW 2: Sarah Yeoman, Karen Kammer, Michelle Pierson, Kathy Kammer, Lisa Streveler, Dawn Jungles, Dina Patzchke, Mary Burden, ROW 3: Mr. Sakel, Doug Hanners, Vicky Robbins, Lori Homier enjoy the courtyard. 3. The winners are Lisa Cheever, Mary Grover and Maureen DeBarge. 4. The High School Chorus: Sharon Duttlinger, Kelly McBride, Nancy Walters, LaDonna McCarthy, Lisa Cheever, Dana Hogle, Diane Wisz, ROW 2: Debbie Sanders, Candy Manns, Kevin Cavinder, Scott Grevenstuk, Paul Beckmann, Alan Burnette, Debbie Dahm, Sue Fraley, Diane Georgakis liven up the school sign. 5. Chorus members participate during class. 6. Maureen DeBarge gets in the mood of the song.

CLOSING

A Change Of Pace

This year's Student Council scheduled many fine events which, to the disappointment of all, had to be cancelled due to bad weather and illnesses. Six convos made it through in spite of the hardships to entertain all. Aside from organizing convos, the Student Council furnished the awards given out on Awards Day, and sponsored the 1977-78 Homecoming.

1. Roger Patzschke learns how to use the "Rhonrad". 2. Tom Twining gets a kick to the 'gut' during the Karate convo. 3. The 1977-78 Student Council. 4. Darcy Green introduces the Mountain Music Makers. 5. The Mountain Music Makers make music for the student body. 6. Dennis Seegers hurls the Super Ball into the rebounder.

Active Kougars

High schools are blessed with many talented students who excel in activities other than athletics; KV is no exception. Lisa Cheever, Mary Grover and Dana Hogle sang their way into state competition and placed second in the state. Lisa also did very well with her piano playing.

Jim Tillger, Kip Fitzgerald and Kent Thomas, three artistically inclined students, were the subjects of a Post-Tribune article dealing with the KV Art Department.

Twelve student "Senators" from Mr. Lewis' Legislative Process class attended a Mock Senate Session at West Central in March. In December, about a dozen Girl Scouts traveled to Mexico. The girls toured much of Mexico City and other nearby locations.

1. Girls' State Representatives, Lisa Sanders and Gayle Struble smile in front of the flowering crab tree. 2. Posing here are nine of the Girl Scouts who went to Mexico. 3. Kent Thomas works on his masterpiece. 4. KV Student "Senators" relax at West Central. 5. Lisa Cheever, Mary Grover and Dana Hogle rehearse their award-winning ensemble. 6. KV's marching band in action. 7. Boys' State Representatives Jim Wallace, Joe Bubalo and Steve Zylstra pose in front of the flowering crab tree.

Kougars Face Heartbreak In '78 Sectional

The 8th Annual Basketball Sectional, held at KV, found the Kougars losing in the first game to the Lowell Red Devils. Sectional Week had been all planned with Hollywood Day on Monday, and Red and White Day on Tuesday. Tuesday afternoon, with the whole school in the gym for a pep session, held new attractions for all.

A pie eating contest, sponsored by the Pep Club, had Mr. Jones competing with such great high school appetities as Maureen Kaper, John Misch, and Jerry Furst. Ending up covered with cream pie, Jerry had eaten the most pie in three minutes and won the contest.

A three-legged race with the Varsity ball players and their girlfriends, and the traditional corsage pinning concluded a fine pep session.

1. Kougar backers support their team. 2. "The Unknown Comic". 3. Dan Myers and Kim Pardus dribble up the floor during the three-legged race. 4. An avid Kougar fan watches. 5. Jerry Furst 'chows down' on his cream pie. 6. Tim Blaszczyk pounds on the floor in a fit of anguish during the Lowell game. 7. Scott Green prepares to shoot a valuable basket.

“Wish Upon A Star”

Ordering tuxes and flowers, purchasing long dresses and garters, what do these all mean? PROM. A month full of preparations passed quickly before it was realized that the time had come. Even though the event itself passed, the memories lingered. The dance floor, highlighted with decorations and the fountain, was filled with country and rock music by the group, “Thrush”. Dinner at a fine restaurant or the buffet at St. Joe made the evening complete.

1. Chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. Hale and Mr. and Mrs. Fritch. 2. Dennis Seggers and Dawn Vander Molen relax to a nice easy flowing song. 3. Kathy Ferguson sits one song out as Roger visits. 4. Jeff McDaniel and Pam McKenzie dance next to fountain. 5. Lisa and Lyle Cheever watch to make sure that they don't step on each other's toes. 6. The lead singer and keyboard player in the group "Thrush" entertains. 7. Ted Wahlberg arranges Teresa Holland and Cliff Passuello for their pictures.

Final Farewells And Congratulations

1. Mr. Ryska acknowledges students' standing ovation as KV says, "Good job done. Mr. Ryska. Good Luck as Asst. Superintendent." 2. Leah Stewart receives for the 2nd year in a row the Most Dedicated Journalism and Newspaper Staff Student. 3. Monica Schweiger receives from Mrs. Myers an art award for macramé. 4. Lisa Cheever accepts her award from Mr. Wharton for being top vocalist. 5. Randy Sippkema, president of the F.F.A. chapter, receives an award for showing so much interest and dedication. 6. From the United States Marine Corps, Sergeant Thomas E. Updegraff presented to Karn Holtberg an award for being a distinguished musician and soloist. 7. Mr.

Ryska takes great pride in presenting to Cliff Passuello both the valedictorian trophy and the DAR Good Citizenship Award.

Top 10 in the class of '78: 1. Cliff Passuello 2. Marilyn Henning 3. Karen Holtberg 4. Shari Zeck 5. Betty Mahieu 6. Lisa Cheever 7. Judy Jabaay 8. Sally Mak 9. Randy Sippkema 10. Tara Nesius. The Yearbook Staff personally wants to congratulate every award winner and apologizes for not mentioning everyone but hopes that everyone will keep doing outstanding work in the future.

Pass This Way

Each year at graduation people crowd in to see their "babies." As the seniors receive their diplomas, one can notice applause, flashes from cameras, and even tears of joy.

Usually the seniors have the same color of caps and gowns. The class of '78 chose to be the first in K.V. history for a change of pace. The girls wore white gowns, and they guys wore red.

As the Symphonic Band played the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance March," the '78 seniors walked proudly down the stairs. There was a feeling in the air, best captured in the title of Seals and Crofts' great hit "We May Never Pass This Way Again."

Dr. Murray opened the ceremony with a short prayer. Salutatorian Marilyn Henning's speech covered the areas of the energy crisis, the weather, and the famous people of our time.

Words of wisdom given by Dr. Murray were followed by two songs: "Contemporaria" and "Look's Like We've Made It" by the band.

Cliff Passuello, the valedictorian of the class of '78, gave his speech with the future in mind. Plans for after graduation and the first class reunion in 1983 were discussed. He closed with some helpful advice to his fellow classmates, with words found in the song by Seals & Crofts.

"Like Columbus in the olden days, we must gather all our courage to sail our ships out on the open sea, because we will never pass this way again."

A grand finale to the commencement came with a standing ovation for Tina Gard, as she walked up to receive her diploma. She had missed most of her senior year due to a serious accident, suffering second and third degree burns. Tina displayed that courage described by Cliff.

This Is Dedicated To . . .

I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead. She is just away.

With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand
She has wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since she lingers there.

And you-o-you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return —

Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here:

Think of her still as the same, I say,
She is not dead — she is just away!

James Whitcomb Riley

It is often said that Life is but a day. The Bible says our life is but a vapor here today, gone tomorrow.

These words are said to express the shortness of our stay on earth. No matter when life ends it is always too soon. Our journey through this life is for a reason.

Vicki's journey was for a reason. — To touch lives.

Not to die but to live on — Forever.

In Vicki's 16½ years she went many places, did many things and had many friends. But of all these the important thing is that she asked the Lord into her heart.

This assures eternal life.

Did Vicki touch your life?
Did she touch it for a reason?

To those that love and miss Vicki we can have the hope of seeing her again someday in a happier and better world if we make the same decision and ask as she did.

With Love, Mom

Au Revoir Mrs. Duncan

This page is gratefully dedicated to our sponsor of three years, Mrs. Duncan. She has been a great help in publishing the yearbook, and an inspiration to all to do well in everything. Without her the Kougard Pride would not be what it is today.

Mrs. Duncan will be leaving us after this year to have a baby. There are too many things that should be expressed on this page, but the space does not allow for them. Best wishes always, and thanks a million.

The Kougard Pride Staff

the 1990s, the number of people with a university degree has increased in all countries, but the increase has been largest in the Netherlands (see Table 1).

Table 2 shows the average number of hours per week that men and women spend on unpaid work in the household. The number of hours spent on unpaid work is generally higher for women than for men. The gender gap is largest in the Netherlands, where women spend on average 12.5 hours per week on unpaid work, while men spend only 6.5 hours per week. The gender gap is smallest in the United States, where women spend on average 10.5 hours per week on unpaid work, while men spend 7.5 hours per week. The gender gap is also smaller in the United Kingdom and Germany.

Table 3 shows the average number of hours per week that men and women spend on paid work. The number of hours spent on paid work is generally higher for men than for women.

The gender gap is largest in the Netherlands, where men spend on average 35.5 hours per week on paid work, while women spend only 25.5 hours per week.

The gender gap is smallest in the United States, where men spend on average 30.5 hours per week on paid work, while women spend 25.5 hours per week.

The gender gap is also smaller in the United Kingdom and Germany.

Table 4 shows the average number of hours per week that men and women spend on both unpaid and paid work. The number of hours spent on both unpaid and paid work is generally higher for men than for women.

The gender gap is largest in the Netherlands, where men spend on average 42.0 hours per week on both unpaid and paid work, while women spend only 31.0 hours per week.

The gender gap is smallest in the United States, where men spend on average 37.0 hours per week on both unpaid and paid work, while women spend 31.0 hours per week.
